

NOTICE REGARDING JUVENILES

A child and parent required to appear before the Court have an obligation to provide the Court in writing with the current address and residence of the child. The obligation does NOT end when the child reaches age 17. On or before the seventh day after the date the child or parent changes residence, the child or parent shall notify the Court of the current address in the manner directed by the Court. A violation of this subsection may result in arrest and is a Class C Misdemeanor. The obligation to provide notice terminates on discharge and satisfaction of the judgment or final disposition not requiring a finding of guilt.
